Good News from Perth

One of our Perth missionaries (Kimberly) recently received the following encouragement note from a Uni of Western Australia student (reprinted in full):

Power to Change has really been the power that changed my life. Not quite in as dramatic way as it sounds, but in my journey with God. I came to UWA (University of Western Australia) with what I thought was a good understanding and relationship with God, but was I wrong! The Power to Change group and my mentor Kimberly, got me to delve deeper; study Scripture and ask these hard questions. It really opened my eyes to what I don't/didn't know and opened my heart to want to know more.

After learning so much about God and Jesus these past few months, I wonder why I wasn't on this path with them before.

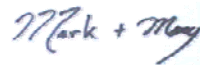

I first came across Power to Change at O-Day (Orientation Day) where I filled out their questionnaire with my friends to get a free ice-cream and thongs. However, for some reason I was the only one to tick that I wanted help with study. I got a text a week or so later asking whether I still wanted to catch-up and talk about study. I thought it was still a good idea, so I met them the next week. We talked about study and then about God for a bit. When that was finished, I didn't think any further about Power to Change until one Tuesday when I just so happened to choose to sit on the Reid Lawn at 10am.

I was approached by two Power to Change members during Salt Hour and we got to talking. They invited me to Connect Time that day and I have been growing in my faith ever since. Looking back on it, I feel that God has been guiding me to Power to Change and only on the third instance did I really listen.

We are currently experiencing a major shortfall in funds. The mission's ministry account on our behalf was over $3000 below the required amount. Someone, we don't know who at this point has already gifted $1000. Would you be willing to ask the Lord how you can help? We're looking for 20 people or churches to give $100 as a one-time gift, and 5 people or churches to commit to start/increasing a $50 monthly donation. This would enable Mary and I to return to full time ministry. Please refer to instructions below.

In His Service,

And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.
